

Vishal Keshri, is a young Tourism Lecturer who is a Post Graduate (Masters of Tourism Management) from Lucknow University , Institute of Tourism Studies, 2002 followed by M.Phil degree from Madurai Kamraj University, (Madurai), Tamil Nadu in 2008, on Water based Adventure Tourism in Nepal. He is currently working as Assistant Professor in Tourism at the Prestigious Indian Institute of Travel and Tourism Management, Gwalior. An organization funded and managed by ministry of Tourism, Government of India since November 2012.

Mr. Vishal Keshri has been an ace debater who has an in depth knowledge about the different types of Tourism Products of India and Nepal . He has also worked as senior lecturer for Tourism at Nepal College of Travel and Tourism Management from October 2003 till July 2010. He is credited for having started the Masters degree Program at the same college in 2008 where he was the Coordinator-cum Lecturer too. The major areas of Interest of Vishal Keshri are Religious Tourism, Travel Agency and Tour Operations Management, Eco- Tourism, Tourism Geography, Wildlife Tourism, MICE Tourism, and Foundation of Travel and Tourism Management.

Vishal Keshri is also credited for having written a textbook named Conducting Tourism and Travel Business, which is an amalgam of his experience over a period of time Working in India and Nepal which is particularly a great handbook for travel professionals. He has a paper published in the Tourism Journal of Himachal University, Shimla with the name of 'Propellers Hovering over Nepalese Skies'. He has the dream of making and seeing India glow among all the other major Tourist destinations attract more and more numbers of International Tourists visit India and quench their thirst by knowing and discovering the undisclosed facts of this mighty country called India